With more than 100 restaurants and 30 different retail centers, York County, Virginia has something for every palate and every budget! Bordered by the York River, our restaurants serve some of the freshest seafood on the Peninsula. Don’t miss the signature fish tacos at Riverwalk Restaurant, oysters on the half shell from Yorktown Pub, or jumbo sea scallops from Dare Deli and Steamhouse.

Enjoy fine dining and authentic dishes at Doraldo Ristorante Italiano where you won’t be able to resist the garlic knots. Taste why Pierce’s Pitt Bar-B-Que has been named one of the Best BBQ Joints in America by National Geographic (with a secret family recipe dating back almost a century). Indulge in a good old southern breakfast favorite—biscuits and gravy—when you visit Pop’s Drive In and Shorty’s Diner.

When it comes to shopping, you’ll find the convenience of major retailers, as well as the unique offerings of small businesses. Master Framer Tom Trimble has been preserving art in the community for more than 40 years at Trimble Collection, Gallery of Fine Art and Art Restoration Services. Downtown, at Viccello Goldsmith, owner Hank Viccello designs beautiful custom jewelry perfect for special occasions. For more than a decade, Ann Adcox and Suzanne Hayes have been offering name brand clothes at discount prices at Pea Soup for Kids Consignment Boutique. 1. Historic Yorktown

History meets hospitality. Here, you’ll find several waterfront restaurants and shops—boasting panoramic views of the York River. Water Street Grille keeps 20 local craft brews on tap. Larry’s has an Original Larry’s Hard Lemonade Slushie with your name on it. The motto at Carrot Tree? Life is short; eat dessert first!

With a public pier, free parking garage, trolley service, and bicycle racks—we make getting to Riverwalk Landing easy. This premiere shopping and dining venue is home to many of the county’s special events, such as free outdoor concerts, festivals, holiday gatherings, and Saturday farmers markets!

Just a short walk up the hill, you’ll find galleries featuring the work of local painters, sculptors, and photographers. Black Dog Gallery, On the Hill Gallery, and Gallery at York Hall showcase everything from antique prints to modern paintings to stained glass and pottery.

Bring your palate to life with a cup of Deadrise Blend organic coffee at Mobjack Bay Coffee Roasters & Petite Café, located in the historic Cole Diggies House.
